4. The minutes of the last meeting were read, proposed by Brian Pepper and seconded by John Bevan that the minutes as read be passed.

5. Correspondance: Just the one letter received from Sid Jarman enquiring about photographs from the ladies dinner night (Joes got your photo's Sid) and we will ask Mick to get you a broach put by.

6. Financial Report: Gordon reported that our savings account now stood at £839.36 and our General account was the same as last month at £128.41 this is because the cash taken at our last meeting was kept as the running float for the bar. We have since paid in £85.00 still keeping at hand a float of £43.00.

7. Barman: Joe asked for volunteers for Barman as it was not right to expect Gordon to keep doing it as he had enough on his plate as it was (I'm typing this as well) Larry Lamb, Mick Burtenshaw and Curley Hooper all took one place forward while the rest retired. We will be able to sort out the workings of it at the next meeting.

8. Pub Card: This months Bottle was wone by Brian Pepper who very kindley donated the bottle back for next month. Someone remarked that the colour and shape let alone contents had changed, but as stated (honestly Boys) the old one leaked. Thanks Brian.

9. Brian Pepper asked what was happening about the collection of Petrol coupons and stamps etc. None so far have been handed in, we are still very interested in collecting these items and Curley has said that he will collect them for us, so please if you have any hand em over.

10. Cash and Carry Card: We now have our own Cash and Carry card so we will be running regular trips to Ipswich, so if any one is interested and wants to come along please let us know.
