6. Finance report: General account is £1217.07, savings account £1733.05 and benevolence at £41.72 still to pay the Hotel for the Remembrance Day lunch.

7. Remembrance Day: Joe reported that the lunch had been a complete success and the RAF Regiment enjoyed themselves, the parade though was a disaster starting ten minutes too early before we'd had a chance to form up, perhaps next years will be better.

Proposed by Curley Hooper and seconded by Vic Steedman that a vote of thanks be given to Barrie for all his hard work in organising the lunch, carried unanimously well done Bazzar.

Joe also reminded every one that on Remembrance Sunday our Bar will not open and invited every one who wanted to join him at the Legion on the Sunday evening, thats 1992.
